

Martinsville Area Community Foundation hires staff member.
February 1, 2006

The Martinsville Area Community Foundation (MACF) has hired April M. Haynes of Bassett, VA, as its Office Manager. April will staff the Foundation's office in the West Piedmont Business Development Center and will handle the Foundation's daily administrative operations.

April is a native of the Martinsville, Henry County area, having graduated from Bassett High School and Patrick Henry Community College. She is currently pursuing a degree in Business Management from Old Dominion University. She is married to Joe Haynes, who is employed by Martinsville City Sheriff's Office and Martinsville City Fire/EMS, and they have one son.

MACF is the newly-established community foundation serving the City of Martinsville, Henry County and surrounding areas. It currently holds six endowment funds totaling approximately $3.7 million in assets. The Foundation expects to grant over $100,000 this year to address important community needs and opportunities.

MACF is affiliated with Foundation for Roanoke Valley, which has been in existence since 1988 and has over $90 million in outright and deferred estate commitments.

Anyone wishing to know more about MACF should call its office at 276-656-6223, or write to Martinsville Area Community Foundation, P.O. Box 1124, Martinsville, VA 24114.
